HEISKELL'S OINTMENT.

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. We know of no remedy for dyspepsia more successful than Hood's Sarsaparilla. It acts gently, yet surely and efficiently, tones the stomach and other organs, restores the faint feeling, creates a good appetite, cures headache, and refreshes the benumbed mind. Give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial. It will do you good.

Peculiar

In the combination, proportion, and preparation of its ingredients, Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures where other preparations entirely fail. Peculiar in its good name at home, which is a tower of strength abroad, peculiar in the phenomenal sales it has attained, Hood's Sarsaparilla is the most successful medicine for purifying the blood, giving strength, and creating an appetite.

Mr. Herbert Allee, one of the foremen in the Standard Shoe Co., shop in the prison, was quite seriously beaten by some negro convicts working in the shop on last Friday.

The new passenger depot, to be built here, is said, will be a magnificent structure of the most modern architecture, two full stories high and of the finest grade of brick, with marble and granite finish.

State Geologist Winslow visited Miller county last week on business pertaining to his office. Cole and Miller counties should receive a thorough survey of their immense undeveloped iron and lead deposits.

Marriage to a great extent must be a failure over in Laclede county. There are sixteen divorce cases to come before the court next month. Eight of the plaintiffs are husbands and eight are wives. A Chicago divorce lawyer would no doubt find a fine field over there.

Wm. Rice, of near Cedar City, who is charged with assault upon Miss Abbie Yount of the same vicinity, came in from Miller county Friday evening and gave himself up to the authorities of this city, and was delivered to a constable and deputies of Callaway, who took him to Cedar City. Rice positively denied the crime charged against him.

Mr. J. J. Smith of the H. McK Wilson & Co., St. Louis, was in the city this week viewing the outlook for a creamery at this place. There has been a meeting called for Saturday, the 29th inst., at which the subject will be fully explained, and all interested in a creamery at this place are requested to be present. A stock company has been partially organized and it is hoped will be fully completed at this meeting. The meeting will be held at the court house.

Creamery Notes.

The business men and farmers of Jasper county, Mo., are trying to put a creamery in Carl Junction.—Dairy World.

The Clearwater (Kan.) Sun says: The creamery at this place has placed more money in the pockets of our farmers than any other enterprise ever undertaken in the city. From April 1 to September 1 the creamery paid out for milk and labor over $8,000. This is an average of $1,600 per month.—Daily World.

The creamery at King City, Gentry county, Mo., has been sold to Mrs. Edward Thompson, who has made many improvements and now operates it.—American Dairyman.

An association of ladies of Boulder, Colorado, have organized a creamery company. It is incorporated by women; capital stock, $25,000. It is controlled and operated exclusively by ladies.—American Dairyman.

Mr. Tom Taylor, living three miles from Olean, one of Miller county's enterprising farmers, says if a creamery is put in operation at Jefferson City, he wants to furnish the milk from 30 cows.

Circuit Clerk W. H. Lusk is getting ready the circuit court docket. There will be forty-one civil and thirty-six criminal cases. Twenty-one of the criminal cases are against Middleton, the Indian doctor, who had such a swell here during the summer, for practicing medicine without a certificate from the State Board of Health.

Section 3 of the Rules and regulations of our public schools says: Sickness of the pupil or in the family, or other cause rendering the absence of the pupil imperatively necessary, will be considered the only reason for absence. All pupils who shall be absent four half days in the high school and six half days in the other schools shall forfeit their place and be removed to a lower grade, unless such reasons as above stated shall be given by parent or guardian either by note or in person.

Mr. Lee Ruthven died about noon Sunday, and his funeral took place at 11 o'clock Tuesday from Maj. Ruthven's residence. He was buried in the Rice cemetery, four miles from the city, and the religious services conducted by Rev. J. T. M. Johnston, pastor of the First Baptist church. Mr. Ruthven was 24 years of age and the son of Maj. Ruthven. He was a young man of good habits, and a bright and useful future was opening up before him when that insidious and cruel disease, consumption, laid its hand upon him and the grim reaper marked him as a victim.

Gov. and Mrs. Francis gave an elegant Tea in honor of the Misses Gamble and Miss Janet Ewing on Monday, the 17th inst. The executive mansion was beautifully decorated and Prof. Nordmans band lent charm to the occasion. A large number of invited guests from this city and abroad attended. The young people privileged their stay after the hour of six and enjoyed the pleasures of the dance. The Gov. and Mrs. Francis have the charm of making their guests feel at home, and on this occasion was not an exception to the rule. The young ladies in whose honor the entertainment was given, have always been popular in Jefferson City, and the pleasure of the Tea was only mellowed by the fact that it signaled the loss of the three young ladies, one of whom is soon to wed and take her departure for the far west, and the other two remove to Kansas City.
